

ASX RELEASE
6th MARCH, 2006

eBet Announces Agreement With Mohegan Sun At Pocono Downs

Leading gaming technology company eBet Limited (ASX: EBT) ("eBet") today announced that it has entered into an agreement with the Mohegan Tribal Gaming Authority ("Mohegan"), operators of one of the world's largest casinos, to supply and support eBet's proven online wagering system at Mohegan's Pocono Downs race wagering operation in Pennsylvania, USA. The system will facilitate online wagering on US and some international thoroughbred and harness races.

Mohegan acquired Pocono Downs from Penn National Gaming Inc. ("Penn") (NASDAQ: PENN) in January 2005. eBet has supplied online wagering systems and services to Penn since 1999. Through agreement with Penn, eBet will now expand its online wagering platform to Mohegan's Pocono Downs facility.

eBet Managing Director & CEO, Mr. Tony Toohey, said that the agreement with Mohegan Sun At Pocono Downs leveraged the Company's existing platforms and services and would provide additional recurring revenues from the Company's online division.

Mr. Toohey said that eBet's online wagering platform and services were unique and proven with the Company holding extensive experience and skills in secure online wagering transactions having developed and operated systems in the US, New Zealand and Australia. He said that he saw further expansion for eBet's online services in the US and potentially elsewhere.

"Whilst our core focus will remain land-based gaming systems, we will continue to leverage our expertise in the online environment which, with an increasing number of land-based operators like Mohegan developing online strategies, we see as an ideal complement to our gaming systems operations", said Mr. Toohey.

Mr. Toohey added that with Mohegan operating one of the largest casinos in the world that the Company looked forward to further business opportunities with the group in the future.

